

Leaving a Legacy | Notification of Intent

While we appreciate that the terms of a Will are a very personal matter, having an idea of the volume and value of gifts we might receive in the years ahead is a significant help as we shape future plans. It also gives us an opportunity to thank those who pledge gifts, whether by offering Anniversary Circle membership, regular updates on College activity or other appropriate acknowledgements.

If you have mentioned the RCO in your Will and are happy to let us know about it, or would like to discuss the matter further, please be assured that all information will be treated in complete confidence. You can share your intentions with us by completing and sending this form to the address at the foot of the page, or by emailing details to legacies@rco.org.uk.

- I / we have remembered the RCO in my / our Will
- I / we are willing to share in full confidence the value (specific or estimated) of our gift, as follows: £ .....
- I / we would like the opportunity to talk with you about the best way to promote and advance organ and choral music through my / our Will. Please contact me.

Title (Mr/Mrs/Miss/Ms/Other) .....

Name .....

Address .....

.....

Postcode .....

Telephone (Day) .....

Telephone (Evening) .....

Email .....

Are you an RCO member?  Yes  No

The Royal College of Organists aims to keep in touch with all of its benefactors, providing relevant updates and information regarding our work. All contact details remain confidential and we will never share these with any third party.

I / we are happy to receive relevant information and updates from the Royal College of Organists.

Please return to the following address:
Freeport ROYAL COLLEGE OF ORGANISTS